GEHWOL remains the trusted choice for professional foot care solutions, combining over 150 years of expertise with innovative products for healthy, happy feet worldwide. PBS is proud to expand our spa offerings with this world renowned foot care line.

Join us on Monday, July 28th from 11am to 2pm in the PBS Learning Lounge, or via TEAMS from the comfort of your spa/home as GEHWOL Ambassador Emmanuèle Labrecque introduces us to the best selling GEHWOL foot care line and teaches the key products that make GEHWOL an industry leader.

* PREREQUISITE *

A 1-hour online Certification class. Link will be provided with paid registration of this course.

Emmanuèle Labrecque

National Business Development Manager

Native French Canadian from Quebec, Emmanuèle is a graduate student from Concordia University who later on obtained her Public Relations Certificate from Montreal University. She spent most of her 20's working in Sales & Marketing. In her 30's she decided to follow her passion and completed a Beauty Certificate from George Brown College and a Hairstyling Certificate from Marca College in Toronto.

Combining her business acumen with her beauty industry expertise, Emmanuèle is proud to lead business development and education programs for GEHWOL Foot Care. She is excited to continue exploring innovative spa and wellness brands that make a difference in the industry - and in people's lives.
